BOSTON RACQUET TEAM WINS MATCH

Boston, March 7.—The Boston squash racquet team defeated Philadelphia today, four matches to one, in a tournament on the Harvard club courts. The first match was played yesterday, when Charles C. Peabody, Massachusetts champion, defeated stanley W. Pearson of Philadelphia, thereby winning the national amateur title.

Despatches sent out last 'night in which Yale was given the victory were erroneous,' and were due to an incorrect report received at a local newspaper office. The bouts were started several hours late because the blizzard delayed the arrival of the Pennsylvanians.

PREPARATIONS RAPID FOR

W. F. Johnson of Philadelphia wored the only victory for his team when he defeated Dr. P. S. Kellogg of Boston in straight sels. The scores were 15-8, 15-3, 15-10.

ATHLETES OF PENN. HOPE

TO REPRESENT U. S. AT GAMES Philadelphia, March 7.—Coach Robertson of the University of Pennsylvania has several athletes on his frack team with hope to represent the limited States in the coming Olympic name at Antwerp. In Earl Eby the interdist states in the coming Olympic name at Antwerp. In Earl Eby the interdist 400 metre champion and recent winner of the Milirose 600 yardeent in New York, Robertson believes that he has the logical successor of "Ted" Meredith, who started the athletic world in 1912 by winning the 400 and 400 metre events at Stockholm.

Besides Eby, Pennsylvania has four star quarter milers in Elmer Smith Davis, Gustavson and Mazam. With either Eby or Maxam as anchor man this quartet would be strong enough to represent America in the 1,500 metre yelay.

Two others, Sherman Landers and Everett Smalley are likely to make the Olympic team. Landers is a fine pole vaulter, running broad jumper and la the national hop-step and jump title holder while Smalley has shown remarkable ability over the honer markable ability over the foncing meet here yesterday, 5 to 4.

SATURDAY'S MARKET.

New York, March 6.—Business on the stock exchange today dwindled to meagre proportions, trading being delayed half an hour because of the storm. Wire communication was much interrupted and helped to curtail the operations of the brief segion, but the tone turned firm soon after the heavy opening, with moderate strength at the close.

erate strength at the close.

Abotor shares and their specialties provided most of the diversion at extreme rains of 2 to 7 1-2 points, but mentals of the secondary gr up, also food shares and specialties of the class represented by Famous Players and Lowes were fairly active, advancing 1 to 2 points. There was little inquiry for rails, steels and continuents moved narrowly, with mental changes at the end. The cast backward isdues were oils, but short covering repaired most losses in that division. Sales amounted to 125 for glares.

POETRY

SONG IN MARCH.

giee,
Tossing the slender tree;
the same the same shout his furbus
car,
March cometh from afar;
Breaks the sested mag.c of old Winter's dreams,
And rends his gasey streams;
Challes the potent airs, he flericly liked
Their tetters from the lakes,
And, with a power by queenly Spring
supplied,
Wakens the slumbering tide.

With a wild love he seeks young Samher's charms.
And clasps her in his arms;
Lining his said between he drives
way
Old Winter from his prey;
The ancient tyrant whom he boldly braves.
Goes howling to his caves;
And, to his northern realm compelled to fly.

And, to his notes to fly to fly the victory;
Nields up the victory;
Meltad are all his bands, o'erthrown his towers.

And March comes bringing flowers.

-William Glimore Simms.

WINTER GARDEN. Winter has taken my garden, Ner paths are brown and bare, Nothing is left of the rambow scart Or the dress that she used to wear.

The flowers of mow in my garden Drift into an empty nest. The cold wind never brings me worl of wayfarer or guest.

But a nuthateh comes to my window, And a little gray chickadee lives on the dark blue berries Of my neighbor's codar tree.

And there's something in a garden Like a living thing asieep. That will remember presently A promise she must keep.

Winter has taken my garden, Like poppy felds in the west The sunset color has faded That lately lay on her breast.

And a green word comes to my garden
And leaves will unfold like wings.
And I hear the first three warning
The brown song sparrow sings,

But I feed the birds at my window,
And I watch the flowers of snow,
And I wat for the day when crocus
builts
Will stir in the ground and grow,
